

LET'S TALK TICKET

Ticket to Work Grievance Process

Number 5 in a series of fact sheets about the Ticket to Work program.

Ticket to Work is a Social Security Administration (SSA) program that helps beneficiaries with disabilities get the services and/or training they need in order to work. The process for resolving Ticket to Work disputes differs depending on where you have assigned your Ticket.

- If you have assigned your Ticket to the Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS):

The Maryland Client Assistance Program (CAP) is available to assist you in resolving concerns or difficulties specific to DORS, which is a participating Employment Network (EN) through the Ticket to Work program. Call CAP at 1-800-638-6243.

CAP is a consumer advocacy program related to DORS that can help you when applying for or receiving any services funded under the Rehabilitation Act. CAP emphasizes the resolution of concerns at the lowest level possible, and encourages mediation to settle disagreements.

You have the right to request a formal appeal hearing if you disagree with decisions made about your rehabilitation services. CAP staff can help you write your appeal request, and CAP can offer legal assistance or provide representation at an appeal hearing at no cost to you. Appeal hearings are held through the Office of Administrative Hearings by an Administrative Law Judge.

- If you have assigned your Ticket to any other Employment Network (EN):

The Maryland Disability Law Center (MDLC) is available to assist you with concerns and complaints about Employment Networks. Call 1-800-233-7201.

MDLC is a non-profit legal services organization designated as the Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS) program for Maryland. MDLC also emphasizes the resolution of concerns and complaints at the lowest level possible, and encourages mediation to settle disputes.

MDLC can assist you through the 3-step Ticket to Work grievance process for ENs: (1) Each EN must have an internal dispute resolution process, (2) disputes can be brought before the Ticket to Work Program Manager, Maximus, and (3) issues still unresolved can be brought before the Social Security Administration. MDLC can provide you with information, technical assistance, advocacy services, and/or legal representation at no cost to you throughout these processes.

- If you have other concerns about the Ticket to Work program:

You can contact MDLC or CAP for general information (see reverse side for contact information), or you can call the Ticket to Work program manager, Maximus, at 1-866-968-7842.
